

THE WELLESLEY FREE LIBRARY PRESENTS

INNOVATIONS IN STEM EDUCATION: PRESENTATION AND DISCUSSION

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 19, 2014
MAIN LIBRARY WAKELIN ROOM
7:30 - 9:00 PM

Curious about the latest thinking on science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) education and what primary and secondary schools are doing to develop innovative students? Come to discuss leading-edge approaches to education with Wellesley Public Schools Director of Curriculum and Instruction Dr. Dean Blase and Olin College Professor of the History of Science and Technology Robert Martello. For optional background reading, copies of the book "Creating Innovators" by Tony Wagner are available for loan.

Sponsored by the Wellesley Science and Technology Expo (WSTE)

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

530 Washington Street • 781-235-1610 x 1105
wellesleyfreelibrary.org